UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

PREPARED FOOD PHOTOS, INC.,
f/k/a ADLIFE MARKETING
& COMMUNICATIONS CO., INC.,
a Florida for profit corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

POOL WORLD, INC., a Washington for profit corporation,

Defendant.

No. 2:23-cv-00160-TOR

CONFIDENTIALITY
AGREEMENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

Plaintiff Prepared Food Photos, Inc. f/k/a Adlife Marketing & Communications Co., Inc. and Defendant Pool World, Inc. (each a “Party” and collectively the “Parties”) hereby agree and stipulate to the following procedures to govern the use of confidential documents throughout the pendency of the instant action (the “Action”):

- a) As used in this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order, the term
“Confidential Information” includes the documents identified in the attached schedule

1 that the parties have agreed should be subject to the confidentiality protections of this 2 agreed order; and

3 b) Information contained in an answer to any question asked or any 4 statement made during this litigation that is designated “CONFIDENTIAL” by the 5 agreement of the parties.

7 1. Confidential Information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” that is disclosed
8 by either party or by a third party to any party during the course of this litigation:

10 a) shall only be used by the parties to this litigation, their counsel, any 11 independent expert witnesses and advisors and consultants retained by a party to this 12 litigation (i) in connection with the prosecution and defense of this litigation, or (ii)
13 for use by Defendant’s counsel (Public Citizen and/or Steve Kirby, Esq. and/or Phil 14 Malone, Esq.) in other copyright lawsuits brought by Plaintiff, so long as the same 15 level of confidentiality is afforded therein, or (iii) to be consulted in advising persons 16 facing claims of copyright infringement by plaintiff, and for no other purpose;
17

18 b) shall not be published to the general public in any form by any party to this 19 litigation, their counsel, or any independent expert witnesses, advisors and 20 consultants retained by a party to this litigation, nor used by any party to this 21 litigation, their counsel, or any independent expert witnesses, advisors and 22 consultants retained by the receiving party for any business or commercial purpose
23 other than providing legal advice or representation as discussed in this order, 24 provided, that nothing in this subparagraph shall bar disclosure of documents or 25
26
27
28

1 information that the Court authorizes (or the parties agree to allow) to be publicly 2 filed; and

3 c) may be disclosed by the parties to this litigation only to the following persons
4 insofar as it is reasonably necessary to the prosecution or defense of this litigation, 5 or for use by Defendant's counsel (Public Citizen and/or Steve Kirby, Esq. and/or 6 Phil Malone, Esq.) in other copyright lawsuits brought by Plaintiff, so long as the 7 same level of confidentiality is afforded therein, or to be consulted in advising
8 persons facing claims of copyright infringement by plaintiff:

11 i. the parties to this Action and those management-level employees of such 12 parties to the extent such employees reasonably need access to such 13 Confidential Information;
14

15 ii. attorneys of record for the parties to this litigation, including any 16 attorneys employed by a law firm of record that represents a party;
17

18 iii. attorneys engaged in other copyright litigation brought by plaintiff, or 19 advising persons facing claims of copyright infringement by plaintiff:
20

21 iv. secretarial, clerical and paralegal or student personnel employed 22 full-time or part-time by attorneys or a law firm that represents a party;
23

24 v. the receiving party or independent expert witnesses, advisors and 25 consultants retained by a party in connection with this litigation;
26

27 vi. technical, secretarial, clerical or other personnel employed full-time or 28 part-time by independent expert witnesses, advisors and consultants of a party;

- vii. court reporters or stenographers engaged to record deposition testimony,
and their employees;
- viii. a witness at any deposition or other proceeding in this case;
- ix. a potential witness; and
- x. such other persons as may be authorized by agreement of the parties or by the Court upon motion of any party.

2. Nothing in this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order shall preclude a disclosure of information to any person who offered, prepared, previously had legal access to, was an addressee of, received a copy of such information prior to the date of this Confidentiality Agreement, or participated in the creation, compilation or production of such information.

3. Prior to disclosing “CONFIDENTIAL” documents to persons listed in Paragraphs 1 or 2 above, counsel shall inform each person receiving any “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or information of the terms of this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order as well as the obligation to comply with its terms. All such persons listed in paragraphs 1 or 2 who receive “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or information shall be bound by the terms of this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order, and shall not permit disclosure of the “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or information other than pursuant to the terms of this Stipulation. Each person appropriately designated pursuant to paragraphs 1 or 2 to receive “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or information shall execute a "Written Assurance" in the form attached as Exhibit A.

1 4. Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and 2 Order shall not apply to knowledge, information or documents already held by the 3 non-disclosing party, which was obtained from sources other than the documentation or 4 information disclosed and designated confidential in good faith pursuant to this Joint 5 Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order. The Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order
6 shall also not apply to publicly available information.

9 5. A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a “CONFIDENTIAL”
10 designation at the time made, and failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge
11 thereto. The designation of, or acquiescence to, the designation of any documentation, 12 deposition transcript or testimony or other information as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not have 13 any evidentiary value relating to the status of such information. Moreover, a 14 “CONFIDENTIAL” designation or acquiescence shall not be construed as an admission that 15 the information is, in fact, confidential or is protected from disclosure pursuant to any 16 privilege provided by Ninth Circuit.
17

19 6. In the event the Parties disagree as to the continued propriety of the previous 20 agreement to designation of any particular document or information as “CONFIDENTIAL”
21 the Parties shall attempt to resolve any challenge in good faith on an informal basis. If the 22 dispute cannot be resolved, the disclosing Party must move for a protective order (or 23 otherwise seek relief from the Court pursuant to its discovery procedures) with respect to 24 the challenged document within 14 days of the challenge. The Court thereupon may 25 determine whether any protections may be afforded to the document or information based 26
27
28

1 upon applicable Ninth Circuit law. The challenged document and information shall 2 maintain its “CONFIDENTIAL” designation pursuant to this Joint Stipulation of 3 Confidentiality and Order pending a ruling by the Court with respect to the challenge.

5 7. The documents or information designated pursuant to this Joint Stipulation of 6 Confidentiality and Order as “CONFIDENTIAL” may be disclosed to the Court in 7 connection with any filing or proceedings in this Action, but the Party disclosing said
8 documents or information shall cause the “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or information to 9 be filed under seal, unless the Court rules that the information may be disclosed publicly.
10 All “CONFIDENTIAL” portions of briefs or affidavits may be designated by clearly
11 marking the notation “CONFIDENTIAL” or other similar legend on each the contents
12 thereof, if used in any court proceeding herein, it shall not lose its protected status through 13 such use. The Party which intends to use or disclose “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or 14 information in a court proceeding in this Action shall take all reasonable steps to ensure the 15 continuing confidentiality of the documents. However, nothing in this order shall limit the 16 Court’s ability, either sua sponte or in response to a motion to unseal, to determine that a 17 particular record or piece of information should be unredacted. Nor shall anything in this 18 order require that documents or information must be sealed from public disclosure at trial.
19
21
22

24 8. For good cause, any Party may seek modification or termination of this Joint 25 Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order by first attempting to obtain the consent of the other 26 Party to such modification, and then, absent consent, by application to this Court.
27

28 9. At the conclusion of this Action by judgment, dismissal or stipulation, and the

1 expiration of any and all appeals therefrom or by settlement, the Parties shall either return
2 or destroy all originals and copies, summaries or other reproductions of “CONFIDENTIAL”
3 material, including all prints, summaries, electronic copies and other reproductions of such 4 material. The Party returning or destroying the “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or 5 information shall provide the other Party with a written certification that it has returned or 6 destroyed all such originals and copies, summaries or other reproductions of 7 “CONFIDENTIAL” material, including all prints, summaries, electronic copies and other
8 reproductions of such material. Provided, that nothing in this order shall require the return
9 or destruction of documents submitted to the Court. Provided further, that documents 10 pertaining to plaintiff's subscriptions and income from copyright enforcement, and 11 information from those documents may be retained for use in future copyright litigation
12 brought by plaintiff, or to be consulted in advising persons facing claims of copyright 13 infringement by plaintiff.

14 10. In the event that any Party is served with any judicial process, court order, and/or 15 administrative or regulatory order to compel production or disclosure of any documents, 16 materials, papers, testimony, or things that have been designated “CONFIDENTIAL” that 17 Party shall inform the other Parties to this Order within five business days of the receipt of 18 such process or order.

19 11. This Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order shall survive the termination of 20 this Action, whether by dismissal, final judgment or stipulation, the expiration of any and 21 all appeals therefrom, or settlement, and shall continue in full force and effect. The Court 22
24
25
26
27
28

1 will retain jurisdiction to enforce this Joint Stipulation of Confidentiality and Order.

2 The foregoing Stipulated Confidentiality Agreement is entered by the Parties.
